I am an undergraduate student majoring in Statistics and Economics, with a strong academic foundation in data interpretation, quantitative methods, and economic theory. Proficient in tools such as Microsoft Excel and R, with hands-on experience in survey design, data visualization, and statistical analysis. I am passionate about using data to inform decisions and explore real-world problems. Currently seeking internship or entry-level opportunities in data analysis, economic research, policy analysis, or market research, where I can apply and further develop my analytical and critical thinking skills.
