

ANANYA SAHA

About

Postgraduate Public Policy student with economics as base subject, keen interest in economic development along with sustainable growth, and social impact. Experienced in research, program evaluation, and teamwork, and I use analytical skills to study data, understand trends, and design practical strategies that create real results and inclusive benefits.

Education

- Mount Carmel Autonomous College, Bangalore, Karnataka – Masters in Public Policy (2024–2026)
- NEF College (Gauhati University), Guwahati, Assam – Bachelors in Political Science (2020–2023)
- SAI RNS Academy, Guwahati, Assam – XII Humanities (2020)

CONTACT DETAILS

- 99570-92987
- ananyaasaha18@gmail.com

Experience

Fellowship at B.PAC(Bangalore Political Action

Committee)September 2024 - November 2024; Bangalore, Karnataka

- Studied and checked public spaces at Russel Market
- Made reports with suggestions to improve the area

Policy Training - GRAAM (Grassroots Research and Advocacy Movement) April 2025

- Visited rural areas to see how government policies actually work
- Conducted fieldwork interviewing villagers, officials, and local leaders to see how government programs reach and benefit communities.

Research Assistant; March 2025 - Ongoing;

Bangalore, Karnataka

- Investigating the increasing trend of Indian citizenship renunciation
- Analyzing demographic patterns and migration trends
- Assessed how talent loss affects the economy and suggested policies to retain skilled workers.

Municipal Corporation Internship; June 2025 - July 2025; Agartala, Tripura

- Developed understanding of public sector operations and municipal governance
- Acquired practical insights into urban development and infrastructure projects