WORK EXPERIENCE

ORAIYAN GROUPS

APRIL-JULY (2024)

Marketing and sales intern

- During my 4-month internship in the real estate industry as a Business Development Executive, I gained valuable exposure to both marketing and sales operations. My role involved visiting project sites and directly interacting with prospective clients to generate quality leads. I successfully contributed to the end-to-end sales process, from handling inquiries to assisting in final closures. I also collaborated with senior sales professionals to strengthen client engagement and conversion rates. This experience enhanced my ability to communicate effectively with diverse customers. I developed strong skills in lead generation, negotiation, and customer relationship management. Overall, the internship provided me with practical insights into real estate business development and sales strategies.
