Professional Summary

My name is Yusra, and I am excited to introduce myself for my first professional role. I am currently in my third semester of a B.Com program, having secured impressive academic results: 91% in my 10th grade, 95% in my 12th grade, and 81% and 83% in my first and second semesters, respectively. Throughout my studies, I have demonstrated exceptional organizational skills, a strong work ethic, and a keen ability to learn quickly through various internships. My proactive approach and excellent communication skills make me a valuable team player. I am eager to bring my fresh perspective and innovative ideas to your organization and look forward to contributing positively to the team.
